

AEROMEXICO ANNOUNCES NEW ROUTE BETWEEN MONTERREY – MADRID, ITS THIRD DIRECT SERVICE TO THE EUROPEAN CITY

- This route creates another air bridge for passengers and air cargo between Mexico and Europe.
- Aeromexico has operated in Monterrey for four decades and in Madrid for more than 60 years.

Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, August 11, 2021. – At the Government Palace of Nuevo Leon with the state's Secretary of Economy and Labor as host, Aeromexico announced its new nonstop service between Monterrey and Madrid starting on December 16 with three weekly flights, operated with its Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft.

Aeromexico will be offering more than 20 weekly flights from Mexico City, Monterrey and Guadalajara to the Spanish capital, with more than 13,300 weekly seats, which represents a 43% increase in the airline's capacity between Mexico and Spain.

For the launch, Aeromexico offers introductory fares starting at USD 599 in Economy Class and USD 1,999 in Premier Class.

"Nuevo Leon is a state with substantial tourism development, both in business and leisure. We have more than 4,000 foreign companies established in the state, many of them coming from Europe and Asia and mainly from the United States. When we introduce the attractions that Nuevo Leon has to draw investment, one of them is the talent of its people, then there is the infrastructure that the state has to facilitate doing business. Regarding this nonstop service between Monterrey and Europe, society was requesting this route as it will help increasing business meetings and locals who travel to Europe. Nuevo Leon has been characterized for having the highest foreign investment, and this has required traveling from and to all over the world. Now, it will be easier to come from this city to arrive directly to our state," said the state's Secretary of Economy and Labor, Roberto Russildi Montel.

"I thank the government of Nuevo Leon, Grupo Aeroportuario Centro Norte and all our strategic partners for making this new route possible. Monterrey is one of our main hubs, and with this announcement, we will have around 100 weekly flights to this destination. Connecting Monterrey with Europe will definitely improve connectivity for passengers and air cargo transport", commented Sergio Allard, Aeromexico's Executive Vice President, Legal and Institutional Relations.

On the other hand, Ricardo Dueñas, General Director of OMA, mentioned: "After several years, Monterrey is once again connected to Europe. This new route consolidates Monterrey's position as the most important hub in the northern part of the country. At OMA, we will continue to make the necessary investments to provide a world-class infrastructure".

Aeromexico serves 81 domestic and international routes and can ship cargo to multiple destinations in Mexico, the USA, Canada, Central and South America, Asia, and Europe.
