

AEROMEXICO PRESENTS ITS NEW ROUTES FROM THE AIFA

- These are additional flights to those operated at the AICM.
- The growth starts on August 15 and will continue during the second half of September.

Mexico City, May 19, 2022.- Aeromexico expands its connectivity network to and from the metropolitan area of the Valley of Mexico so the customers can choose the airport that fits their travel plans, either using the International Airport Felipe Angeles (AIFA) or the International Airport of Mexico City (AICM). Due to the growth in its fleet, Mexico's Global Airline will perform these new flights.

The tickets for the new routes are now available for sale and are as follows:

Current routes (weekly frequencies):

- Merida – Seven
- Puerto Vallarta – Four
- Villahermosa – Three

New routes/frequencies as of August 15, 2022 (weekly frequencies):

- Acapulco – Seven
- Cancun – Seven
- Guadalajara – Fourteen
- Monterrey – Fourteen
- Oaxaca – Seven
- Merida – Remains with seven
- Puerto Vallarta – Increases from four to seven
- Villahermosa – Increases from three to seven

With the above, during August the offer will be close to 50,000 seats, which represents an increase of over 400% compared to the current offer.

The airline will add Veracruz as a ninth destination in the second half of September, and three routes will have increased frequencies. Thus, Aeromexico will be carrying out 900 monthly arrival and departure operations from AIFA with a monthly offer of more than 100 thousand seats.

With the new flights, Aeromexico will operate 51 routes in the domestic market, maintaining the industry's highest safety and service standards.
